Police Review division's Citizen Review Committee

CIVILIAN OVERSIGHT

The Portland City Auditor's Independent Police Review (IPR) division is responsible for the civilian oversight of the Portland Police Bureau (Police Bureau). IPR is monitored and advised by a nine-member Citizen Review Committee (CRC).

CRC members are appointed by Portland City Council to serve three-year terms. Candidates must be Portland, Oregon residents or business owners as well as be impartial and objective with a lack of real or perceived conflicts of interest for or against law enforcement.

- Hold public meetings to hear community and Police Bureau member appeals of police misconduct investigations;
- Listen to community concerns regarding police conduct;
- Participate in trainings and activities to increase cultural and ethnic awareness;
- Engage in training and other activities to learn about policing;
- Review Police Bureau policies and procedures;
- Advise IPR on complaint handling processes; and
- Interact with elected officials.

CANDIDATE QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPECTATIONS

- Demonstrate ability to be impartial and objective;
- Possess sound communication and listening skills;
- Lead and function well in a group;
- Maintain high standards of confidentiality;
- Be willing to make a substantial time commitment—including trainings, monthly evening meetings, workgroup meetings, and independent review of complaint files; and

Applications must be received at the IPR office in City Hall by 5:00pm on Wednesday, September 28, 2011. Mail or deliver the application in person at 1221 SW 4th Avenue, Room 320, Portland, OR 97204. Also, applications may be e-mailed to crc@portlandoregon.gov or be faxed to 503-823-3530. An electronic application form is available on IPR's website at www.portlandoregon.gov/auditor/ipr — as well as reports and information regarding IPR and CRC. If you have any questions, please call the IPR office at 503-823-0146.

Applications are evaluated and scored by the Selection Committee and the most qualified applicants are asked to appear for an interview. Every attempt is made to decide on qualified persons who represent the demographic and ethnic diversity of Portland. Service on this committee requires objectivity, fairness, impartiality, and lack of bias – either for or against law enforcement. Applicants may have a conflict of interest between private life and public service, particularly in reviewing complaints of misconduct against police officers. These conflicts may not necessarily disqualify service on the committee, but should be disclosed for consideration by the Selection Committee and City Council. Attach an additional sheet, if needed.

Describe any personal attitudes, life experiences, and prior examples that demonstrate you can make objective unbiased decisions about complaints against the police.

Have you, a close friend, or a family member ever worked or volunteered in the criminal justice system? If yes, please describe.

Would you be willing to take six hours of intercultural competence training? Yes No

This important community service will require a significant time commitment (an estimated five to seven hours each week). CRC members attend regular monthly evening meetings (the second Wednesday each month) that often require advance preparation – such as reviewing case files for upcoming hearings. On occasion, there are additional meetings scheduled. CRC members also serve on various workgroups (sub-committees), which meet separately (generally, one or two meetings each month) and have additional workloads – such as reviewing complaints or policies. There are orientation and training sessions that members attend, including ride-alongs with police officers.

Are you willing and able to make the above CRC time commitment? Yes No

Service on this committee requires honesty and integrity. If any of the questions are not answered truthfully, the applicant will be disqualified from membership on the committee.
